

CONNECTING SPANISH & ENGLISH with STEVE NINE

phonemic awareness that empowers dual language acquisition

This workshop is a one-of-a-kind one-day professional development event designed especially for dual language teachers
ESL teachers
bilingual teachers

You will experience a great day of learning and growing in Spanish and English as you

- Examine crosslinguistic influences
- Explore obvious and subtle differences and similarities of Spanish and English
- Engage in activities that support positive language transfer

Here's what teachers say...

"This workshop was effective because it was engaging... a good WOW presentation."

"I will be a much more effective teacher because of Steve's contrast analysis of Spanish & English."

*"Since I've taken linguistics courses before,
much of the content was review, but wow!
the classroom applications were great."*

Steve Nine is an exceptional presenter with a unique understanding of crosslinguistic transfer. Steve is biliterate, proficient in Spanish and English. As an educator, his experiences range from teaching both languages, to providing staff development for English-speaking and Spanish-speaking teachers, to writing curriculum for Spanish speakers learning English. Personally, Spanish and English are equally home languages of his family.

In addition to his involvement in education, Steve works with several international mission organizations—building playgrounds, training storytellers, and sponsoring praise concerts throughout South America.

Steve and his wife, Jacky, with their three children reside in Portoviejo, Ecuador.
